RIDDLE AFTER MANAGER'S JOB AT MIDDLETOWN

City Manager of Xenia Applicant For New Position

RUMORS FALSE

Local Commissioners Endorse Management Of Kenyon Riddle.

City Manager Kenyon Riddle, Wednesday morning, admitted he is an applicant for the newly-created position of City Manager of Middletown, Ohio, following the announcement that the list of 40 or more applicants for the position had been sifted down to only three candidates, among whom the appointment lies.

Besides Mr. Riddle, the other two prospective managers being considered are E. V. Stoecklein, assistant city manager of Dayton, and acting manager there from the time of the resignation of City Manager Barlow until the appointment of City Manager Barber and Wilbur M. Cotton, city manager of Ambridge, Pa. It is generally believed, however, that the position lies between Mr. Riddle and Mr. Stoecklein.

City Manager Riddle was in conference with members of the Middletown Commission Tuesday, but nothing definite regarding the appointment has yet been taken, and action will be deferred at least until Mr. Riddle, a member of the commission, who is now away from home returns. A letter was received by the local manager, however, saying that the list of 40 candidates for the position, had been cut down to three, and that Mr. Riddle is among those three applicants.

Middletown was one of the first cities to adopt the commission form of government, beginning operation under that form in 1914, but the manager plan has not been followed there, the commissioners themselves being the directing heads of the different branches of the city government.

About a year ago a movement was agitated which finally resulted in the form of government being changed to the commission-manager form. At that time Frank Pauly, editor of the Middletown Journal, wrote to Mr. Riddle for an account of the accomplishments under the commission-manager plan of government, which the paper later published. It is believed this action, led to the consideration of Mr. Riddle for the position which was recently created.

While Mr. Riddle admitted his candidacy for the position, Wednesday morning, he said he wanted to be able to see the new water works proposition, the last big project attempted by the city, through to a successful conclusion, before he left this city.

NEW LIGHT THROWN ON MATEWAN CASE

Mingo County Courthouse, Williamsburg, W. Va., March 2.—The bullet that mortally wounded C. C. Testerman, mayor of Matewan, in the gun battle which led to the Mingo miners' murder trial could not have been fired by any one standing directly in front of him, but must have been fired by a pistol aimed from his side.

The state established this today in cross examining Dr. H. L. Straub, house surgeon of the Welch hospital, where Testerman died. The physician said the bullet entered the mayor's side, passed through the abdomen and came out of the other side.

S. B. Avis, cross examining took off his coat, opened his vest and had the witness point out the point of entrance, course, and exit of the bullet. The doctor's testimony was important because the defense claimed the shot that fatally injured Matewan's mayor was the first of the battle and was fired by Detective Albert Fells.

OFFERS PURSE OF $15,000 FOR MATCH

New York, March 2.—Charles Kline, a local billiard academy proprietor, today offered a purse of $15,000 for a world's championship 18.2 ball line billiard match between Willie Hoppe and Edward Horemans. The offer is conditional upon the players agreeing to play 4,800 points.

Horemans who is playing an exhibition match here with Jake Schaeffer, is leading his young rival today 1,600 to 1,320 in their 4,800 points match.

BOILER MAKERS ARE LAID OFF

Lorain, O., March 2.—Official announcement was made this morning that a five day notice had been given upwards of 30 boiler makers, machinists and helpers at the local Baltimore & Ohio shops to the effect that they would be laid off until further notice.

MEXICAN WARFARE OF THE RIGHT SORT

Torreón, Coahuila, Mexico, March 2.—A large shipment of bisulphide of carbon, which has been detained at the port of Tampico is expected to arrive here soon. The substance is to be used in killing the pink boll worm germs in the cotton seed before planting. Other forms of fumigation and disinfectants are also being employed by the cotton planters to exterminate this plague.

MARION STOPS WORK TO HONOR NEW PRESIDENT

Banks, Factories and Business Houses Close Doors.

GIFT IS PRESENTED

Presidential Party Will Leave For Washington Late Wednesday

Marion, O., March 2.—The home town of President-elect Harding stopped its activities for three hours today while his neighbors in the town and county gathered once more around the famous front porch in Mount Vernon Avenue and bade the Hardings Godspeed to Washington. Banks, factories and business houses locked their doors while owners and employees paid the Hardings an affectionate farewell.

The esteem with which the President-elect and Mrs. Harding are held by their neighbors was commemorated by presentation to them of a silver plaque bearing the inscription:

To Warren Gamaliel Harding
And His Wife,
Florence Kling Harding
From the Citizens of Marion
In Testimony of Affection and Gratitude for Loyal Friendship, Devotion to the Public Welfare And Service to the Highest Conceptions of American Citizenship.
God's Blessing to You.
Marion, Ohio, March 2, 1921.

The presentation was made at the front porch around which was centered so many activities of the campaign. The throng that gathered around the porch numbered several thousand people. The weather was murky and raw, with a drizzling rain.

The Rev. T. H. McAfee, pastor of Senator Harding's church here, made the presentation of the plaque on behalf of Marion's citizens and Senator Harding made a short response.

The Hardings will leave Marion at 7:20 o'clock tonight for Washington, reaching the capital tomorrow afternoon. Several hundred Marion folk will go to Washington tomorrow to attend the inaugural ceremonies.

The conference between General Leonard Wood and Senator Harding failed to settle the matter of Wood's accepting the governor generalship of the Philippines. General Wood left for Chicago still with the offer under consideration.

School Boy Causes Panic By Shooting at Teacher

Attempts "To Get Revenge" With Air Rifle In Lorain.

Lorain, O., March 2.—Armed with an air rifle, and swearing he would get revenge for being kicked out of school, a 10-year-old school boy yesterday afternoon caused a panic in a school room in the Lincoln school in south Lorain, when he opened a window and shot at his teacher, Miss E. Burich.

The boy according to Miss Burich had been expelled from the class because of misbehavior. He threatened to come back and "get" some one but little attention was paid to the boy's threats.

Yesterday afternoon the scholars and teacher were thrown into a panic when the little fellow raised a window of the school room and aiming the air gun at the teacher, he fired a shot. The shot fell wide of its mark, however, and no damage was done. The boy was turned over to Mrs. John Cobb, probation officer of squire's court dry case. Zellers says the lawyer became abusive.

MELLON BECOMES PRIVATE CITIZEN; RESIGNS CONNECTIONS

Next Secretary Of the Treasury Discusses Plans.

Pittsburgh, March 2.—Andrew W. Mellon, Pittsburgh's foremost banker, is today just a plain citizen. He has resigned from every banking and industrial corporation with which he was connected in Pittsburgh, New York and elsewhere. He drew a long breath, free from great business cares this morning for the first time in over 45 years.

The next secretary of the treasury, when asked to enumerate the leading problems confronting the new administration replied:

"There are a great many that are important. I would consider among the leading problems reduction in outlays and realization of economies in conduct of the government.

"Readjustment of the system of federal taxation.

"Finding of our war indebtedness.

"Establishment of our policy on the world peace problems.

"Enactment of an equitable tariff measure."

PUBLIC HEARINGS FOR REORGANIZING DEPARTMENTS HELD

Meetings Will Be Started Next Week Is the Report.

Columbus, March 2.—Public hearings are to be started next week on the Dunn bill providing for reorganization of state departments by combining them into nine directorships and three commissions. Suspending the rules, the house referred the measure to the committee on reorganization of state departments. Rep. Dunn, Wood county, who introduced the bill, is chairman of the house reorganization committee.

Although the bill provides that, if enacted into law, it will become effective on July 1, Rep. Dunn and other legislative leaders said they favor passing the bill as an emergency measure, thereby making it effective immediately upon its passage.

As introduced the bill consists of 48 typewritten pages. It was ordered printed and will be distributed among legislators and interested Ohioans as soon as possible.

LONDON TRAIN SAID TO BE WORLD'S FINEST

London, March 2.—Declared by passengers to be "the finest train in the world," a train composed of six made its first trip from London to new and luxurious Pullman cars has arrived.

Each car is sixty five feet long and cost more than $44,000 to build.

The parlor coaches carry twenty-seven passengers, and those with kitchens sixteen. The decoration is different in each coach, and ranges from Sheraton to Greek styles. New devices of every description are installed to add to the comfort of the passengers.

ROBBERY CLEARED UP IN ARREST OF SEVEN SUSPECTS

Burglary Of Hardware Store in Newark Is Solved.

Newark, O., March 2.—The burglary of a local hardware store on last Wednesday night has been practically cleared up and ten of the thirteen revolvers stolen have been recovered and seven male suspects and two women are under arrest. Affidavits have been filed against Ira Coulter, charged burglary and disposing of stolen goods and an affidavit against Dale Slayter, charged with disposing of stolen goods have been filed.

The remainder of the prisoners will be held pending the outcome.

Further investigation into the case develops another angle that is equally serious for one of the women who gives her name as Mrs. Ira Coulter. It is alleged that prior to 1919 she was married to W. L. Laizure who deserted from the army and she drew his pay during his service and after he deserted.

U. S. INVITED TO TAKE POSITION

Paris, March 2.—The United States is invited to participate in the next meeting of the league of nations council to discuss mandates in the league's reply to the American mandate note which was made public here today. The note points out that the United States was one of the leading participants in the war and peace negotiations, but that America must recognize the fact that the situation has been complicated by the fact that the United States has not ratified the treaty nor joined the league of nations.

Violent Fighting Reported Between Soviet Troops and Workmen.

GARRISON REVOLTS?

Revolution In Petrograd Reported In Finish Dispatch.

London, March 2.—The British foreign office was today without confirmation of reports of violent fighting between soviet troops and insurgent workmen at Petrograd and Moscow. Foreign office officials were skeptical of the reports.

According to the Helsingfors, correspondent of the Central News the Kronstadt garrison has joined the insurgent workmen. The Central News dispatch follows:

"There is fighting in several parts of Russia, the worst being in Petrograd and Moscow. Thirty thousand strikers drove the soviet troops across the city of Petrograd. The fighting was most sanguinary. The soviet commander rushed up reinforcements to save the survivors. The Kronstadt garrison has joined the rebels."

NO MEN ALLOWED ON THIS TICKET

Ouray, Col., March 2.—The women of Ouray have decided that the only way they can secure the certain desired reforms in the conduct of city affairs is to "run the city themselves" and a complete ticket has been nominated by the female of the species to be voted upon at the annual municipal election next month.

"More law and order" is the slogan of the "independent" ticket that will include woman candidates for every office from Mayor to town marshal.

Thirty days was allowed these firms to present testimony as to the value of their holdings.

At the end of that time, the decision provides, that they will be given an opportunity to sell their terminal holdings at the price then fixed or trustees will be named as the next congress.

ENGLAND READY TO FIX TERMS OF INDEMNITY

Germany May Be Presented With An Ultimatum.

THREATEN ACTION

German Delegation Ordered To Stand Pat On Proposals.

London, March 2.—A decision was reached this afternoon to recommend to the allied premiers that a British fleet be sent to Hamburg, Germany, as a part of the plan to force Germany to meet the allied indemnity demands. Announcement was made that the recommendation would be made to the premiers when the supreme council met at 5 o'clock at Premier Lloyd George's official residence at 10 Downing street.

Paris, March 2.—The French military staff has made plans to march directly into Bavaria if an advance is expected to enforce the payment of German indemnity, it was learned this afternoon. The first military movement, it was said, would ignore the Ruhr valley.

London, March 2.—The German delegation attending the indemnity conference has been ordered by the Berlin government to stand pat upon the counter proposals tendered yesterday—that Germany's future reparations be cut down to thirty billion gold marks.

Announcement to this effect was made this morning by the German delegation.

GETS INSTRUCTIONS

Dr. Walter Simons the German foreign minister and head of the German delegation was in direct telegraph communication with the German government and his new instructions were received during the course of these conversations.

Members of the German delegation said that they would inform the allies tomorrow that they cannot consider any alteration of the amount of indemnity which Germany proposes to pay. The Germans said that they took the position that only changes in the method of payment could be discussed.

The allies had demanded 226,000,000 gold marks ($56,000,000) and a tax of 12 per cent upon German exports.

There were rumors that the allies had prepared a sharp answer to the German counter proposals amounting to virtually an ultimatum. The proposals which have been considered to compel Germany to pay in full were understood to have been included the following:

- 1—Indefinite occupation of the left bank of the Rhine;
- 2—Seizure of the German coal fields;
- 3—Occupation of the German ports on the right bank of the Rhine;
- 4—Erection of a Rhine "custom wall"; and as a last resort,
- 5—Seizure of German customs.

The climax of the critical situation into which the conference has been plunged by the attitude of the Germans is expected within 48 hours.

The judicial and military advisors of the supreme council are to make a formal report tomorrow.

"If we remain in London beyond Thursday the conference will last for at least a fortnight. If permission is given for discussion the expert will be called in and they are sure to go into minute details, moreover, experts always disagree and difficulties thus arise."

March 29-30, Middle North district, Mansfield.

April 7-8, Southeast, Logan.

April 12-13, Middle East, New Philadelphia.

May 10-11, Middle West, Sidney.

The vice presidents of these various districts are Mrs. H. Z. Hansen, Akron; Mrs. Charles L. Halter, Fremont; Mrs. F. A. Sosman, Chillicothe; Mrs. G. W. Hixon, Cambridge; and Mrs. Allen Marshall, Piqua.

Dates and places for holding the conventions of the central, Northwest and southwest districts have not been announced.

Club Magazines in Toledo.

Toledo Club women are to have a club magazine of their own. There are perhaps few cities in the country where women are more progressive than they are in Toledo.

Although only a little more than a year old and one of the "baby" federations in Ohio, Middletown is already beginning to make its sister federations "sit up and take notice."

Last month the Middletown club women celebrated their first birthday as a federation with a party attended by 250. Mrs. Charles Kurler, Dayton, gave an interesting address. The federation raised $1,125 for the Near East Relief fund. Two weeks ago a call came to the federation from the tuberculosis hospital for knitted hospital caps and within ten days seventy-five caps were finished and sent.

One of the finest pieces of work the Middletown club women have been doing is for the children. They believe they have come close to solving the movie problem for the little folk. Every Saturday morning at 10 o'clock they have pictures for the kiddies. The attendance varies from 350 to 1,200.

Mrs. Sharp at Urbana

Mrs. William H. Sharp, Ohio federation president, addressed the Woman's Literary Club at Urbana February 19.

Of Interest to Club Women

Here are just a few of the splendid things being done by club women in other states.

"Let's weave the red, white and blue threads of our patriotism into the design of our work." That is the slogan of the American Citizenship and Americanization committee of Nebraska.

Mrs. Lafon Riker, president of the Kentucky federation, has been placed on the state board of charities and corrections by Governor Edwin P. Morrow.

New Hampshire club women are planning to place a trained social worker in the field with non-English speaking mothers. These Yankee club women are now working for a nutrition fund whereby folk in kindergarten-classes of the public schools that are undernourished can be supplied milk.

Club women of Columbus, Georgia, are taking an active part in securing funds for a public library. Recently a book drive was conducted, many valuable books being donated.

Canadian club women have asked universities in Canada to establish employment departments as a point of contact between employer and employee for the benefit of professional women who have to seek their own positions.

NAMELESS MAN OF MYSTERY IS DEAD

San Bernardino, Cal., March 2.—The "man without a name" is dead.

San Bernardino's man of mystery has "crossed the range" after having lived for almost fifty years in this city with his real identity unknown to either himself or any of his friends.

It was about 1872 that C. J. Daley now local chief of police, encountered the "man without a name," in the San Bernardino Mountains. The stranger was unable to tell anything about himself that would help to solve the riddle of his identity. He did not know his name, where he came from, or anything about his past life.

Accompanying Daley to San Bernardino the "man without a name" went to work for Joseph Wilson Tyler and remained with him for twenty-four years. He was called "Josephus" all these years merely to distinguish him from Tyler. When the latter died "Josephus" annexed the name of his benefactor.

The "man without a name" was about eighty-two years old when he died. Before he passed away he made every effort to rouse his dead memory of self to action but he failed.

Supposed to be penniless at his death, a cashier's check for $2,000 was found among his effects and there were other things of value that he had accumulated.

DRIVE ON CATERPILLARS.

Dayton, March 2.—City Manager Barber is determined that caterpillars shall not damage trees here like they did last year, if he can help prevent it. He has asked J. W. Rodgers, florist, and Clarence Seibenthaler, horticulturalist, to organize a committee to direct a drive against the "critters" before they are able to obtain a good "toe hold" this spring.

CORNS

Lift Off with Fingers

Doesn't hurt a bit! Drop a little "Freezone" on an aching corn, instantly that corn stops hurting, then shortly you lift it right off with fingers. Truly!

Your druggist sells a tiny bottle of "Freezone" for a few cents, sufficient to remove every hard corn, soft corn, or corn between the toes, and the calluses, without soreness or irritation.

TO BECOME MANAGER OF NEW YORK STORE

Robert A. Hurley, of this city, who has been assistant manager of the Woolworth five and ten cent store in Springfield, has been made manager of a new store to be opened by that company in Endicott, New York.

Mr. Hurley was called to the Main offices of the Company Monday where he received his promotion as manager to the new store. The store will be opened up April 1, but Mr. Hurley will take charge at once, arranging for the opening.

Mr. Hurley began his connection with the Woolworth Company in this city while still attending Central High School, being assistant manager here. Following his graduation he was assigned as assistant manager here. Following his graduation he was assigned as assistant manager of the Piquette store, and about a year ago was transferred to Springfield. He is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hurley of Hill street, and was to have taken part in the American Legion minstrel show here, when he received his summons to go to Buffalo.

DR. HARRY WILSON DIES IN THE WEST

Relatives in this city have received word of the death of Dr. Harry Wilson, of San Diego, California, which occurred there suddenly Saturday night.

Dr. Wilson was about 60 years of age, and is survived by his wife and three children, one daughter, Mrs. Katherine Shelton, of Chattanooga, Tenn., and another daughter in San Francisco, Cal., and one son David, who is a student at the Boston Medical School. Dr. Wilson was a Quaker and was a resident of this vicinity for many years, making his home with his uncle, the late Nixon Brown, who resided northwest of Jamestown.

METEORS WILL MEET ST. JOSEPH'S FIVE

St. Brigid's Meteors, for the second time this season will meet St. Joseph's High School quintet of Springfield on the Rink court Wednesday night.

In the previous contest between these two teams, the Meteors lost by a narrow margin and they think that they can reverse the result in a second contest here. In the last game Coach Haller's lads were playing without their regular lineup, which is expected to make a difference when they appear with the regular five Wednesday night.

In a preliminary game, St. Brigid's Cadets will play another good team as a curtain raiser.

FINED ON CHARGE OF STEALING GRIP FROM LOCAL STATION

On charges of stealing a suitcase belonging to Miss Ivan McClain of Jamestown, from the D. X. & S. traction office here Monday night, Miss Irene and Bobbie Hook, of Dayton, who have been living here for two weeks and Don Hewitt of Blanchester were arrested by Deputy Sheriff Birch and Day in Wilmington Tuesday night.

Wednesday morning Magistrate J. E. Jones fined the girls $200 each, and suspended the fine on the agreement the girls leave town immediately. The case against Hewitt was suspended on payment of the costs, and the posting of $38 to cover the cost of the suitcase and contents should it not be returned.

The Hook sisters had been living here two weeks when they left Monday evening with Hewitt for Blanchester. In the traction office they took Miss McClain's suitcase, but claimed that it was taken by mistake. Their own suitcase, they left, and it was claimed by their mother, who was in the office at the time, and taken to Dayton by her. The girls claimed they sent the suitcase to Miss McClain addressed to Miami-Jacobs Business College, Dayton, where she is a student, but as it had not arrived yet, Hewitt was required to put up $38 which will be returned to him if the baggage is found in good condition. When Deputy Sheriff Birch and Day arrived in Blanchester to arrest the girls Tuesday evening they found they had gone to Wilmington, where they were placed under arrest by the officers. It is alleged that in Blanchester, they had intended that they knew nothing of the suitcase, and had not come through Xenia, saying they came there from Columbus.

MOTHERS' CLUB TO PRESENT PLAYLET IT IS ANNOUNCED

Plans are being made by the Mothers' Club of the Orient Hill School, for the presentation of a playlet, to be given the first part of April, in which members of the Club will take part. The plans were formulated at the meeting of the members of the Club held at the school, Tuesday afternoon.

The proceeds from the play will be put into a fund held by the Club, which will be to pay for the work being done by the members. New plans are being made by the Club, which will be to the interest of the children of the school and money is needed to carry out the proposed plans.

The characters for the play will be taken by the members of the Club who number about 50, and the selection of parts is being made by Mrs. C. R. Stearns, as chairman of the committee.

COURT NEWS

The will of Alice Q. Lucas, admitted to Probate by Judge J. Carl Marshall Tuesday, disposes of an estate valued in money at $600; Under the original will, executed May 22, 1905, a niece, Mrs. Ola Delph and her heirs are bequeathed a frame house on the hill next to the C. H. & D. railroad, known as a tenant house and situated on the Hawkins road, and all the land east of the Hawkins road and between the farm of Grant Miller and the Dayton and Xenia pike. The barn and other buildings belonging to the tenant house on the west side of the road and five acres of land are to go with the house. To her husband John B. Lucas now dead and her sister, Sarah Quinn was bequeathed all of the rest of the real estate during their natural life and to them also all the personal property was given to go to Mrs. Delph at their death.

A codicil to the will, executed April 24, 1917, bequeaths to Mrs. Delph the piano, furniture and household goods and to a nephew, Carl A. Andrews and his daughter, Mildred A. Andrews a tract of land between the Hawkins road and the C. H. & D. railroad and also a tract at the intersection of the Hawkins road and the Dayton and Xenia pike.

A second codicil was executed in September 1920 giving to Mrs. Delph a wheat binder, mower, three wagons, buggy, two horses, a piano a ladies watch and chain and all the household goods.

Cora L. Baker is plaintiff in an action asking divorce from Fred E. Baker, filed with clerk of Courts C. S. Johnson Tuesday. The plaintiff charges gross neglect of duty. The couple were married August 28, 1918.

ILLINOIS YOUTH IS NATHAN HALE OF WORLD WAR

Lieut. Oliver Junian Kendall.

When the American Red Cross discovered an unmarked grave behind the lines once held by the Kaiser's forces at Cantigny an investigation was held and the body of an American lieutenant was found. Oliver Junian Kendall is his name. He was connected with the engineering division of the first troops that occupied the front trenches near Cantigny. The Americans had never assumed the offensive and hearing some noise in "no man's land" Kendall volunteered to investigate. He was captured by the Germans and upon his refusal to divulge any information was shot as a spy, the Nathan Hale of the World war.

HAVE TO GET UP NIGHTS?

If So Your Bladder is Irritated. Try This Simple Remedy.

Wm. D. Ostermeyer, 326 E. Second St., Dayton, Ohio, says in his own home paper the Dayton Daily News: "My bladder caused me to get up many times at night and inconvenience me as often as every 30 minutes in the day. After taking a few lithiated buchu tablets, my bladder is perfectly normal. They also relieved me of a very lame back. It gives me much pleasure to tell my friends about these little tablets."

Lithiated buchu acts on the kidneys and bladder like Epsom salts on the bowels. It cleans out the impurities, which cause the irritation. It is not a patent medicine, as the formula is on the package. The tablets cost 2c each. This price makes it possible to place in the formula several high priced drugs, which are necessary to give prompt relief. Very likely, you have never taken anything like it. Try a few doses for backache, scanty, scanty or high colored urine, frequent desire, gravel and other deposits of the bladder. Ask to see the Keller formula of lithiated buchu at Sayre & Hemphill's Drug Store, or drug stores everywhere.

THE RIDICULOUSNESS OF THE IDEA OF A REPUBLICAN EVER DOING ANYTHING WRONG.

None are too wise to be mistaken, but few are so wise as to acknowledge it. There is nothing respecting which a man may be so long unconscious as of the extent and strength of his prejudices. We are thinking just now of Political Prejudice. The writer has often said that it seemed to him that his party affiliation was as sacred to him as his trust in God, which latter he holds confidently. Can it be then, that other strong Republicans could possibly be so mistaken in their views as to be influenced to call White Black,

We have in mind the article of Ex-President Taft on the Philippine question, alluded to by us a few days ago, in which he claimed that the Wilson administration had taken the control of affairs there from the hands of Progressive Americans and had turned them over to local Philippine lobbyists, to the great disadvantage of the country. The question is, was Mr. Taft honest and fair in this view of the case, or was he influenced by Political Prejudice? We are called upon to answer this, and we wish to do so without prejudice. We realize that this is important, for we plead guilty to being some Republican ourselves.

It is the "Philippine Press Bureau," at Washington, which asks us to make correction—J. P. Melencio, Acting Director. He sends us a four page circular in which he controverts Mr. Taft's statement of conditions in the Philippines very vigorously—claiming of course that everything is lovely, or at least very greatly improved from 1913 conditions. It says:

"Simply because Francis Benton Harrison had the courage to carry out the import of President McKinley's policy which has been confirmed time and again by the American people."

Mr. Melencio also sends us a letter in addition. We quote a part of this, as follows:

"The writer has just returned from an extensive inspection of the Islands. He saw no such conditions as Mr. Taft asserts (on hearsay evidence) exist. On the contrary he found the opposite. Statistics are burdensome, but as to schools and roads alone—two improvements Mr. Taft stated had so sadly deteriorated during Mr. Harrison's administration, the FACTS are these:

Miles of road	1st class	2nd class	3rd class
1913	1388	1264	1989.5
1919	4500	1988	3109

Schools	Number	Teachers	Attendance
1913	2934	7671	440,050

Is this retrogression? Facts speak for themselves. In view of the inaccuracy of Mr. Taft's remarks, and his unjust attack on Mr. Harrison's administration, we ask that you kindly publish above. This is a matter concerning the honor of the Filipino people—and of the American people as well."

Of course we are slow to admit that Mr. Taft could be prejudiced, but then we know that prejudices are like rats, and men's minds are like traps; prejudices get in easily, but it is doubtful if they ever get out.

THE HARDING CABINET.

The Harding cabinet in its present tentative form includes two or three outstanding names, others with a lesser reputation, and others who must be taken as simply the personal selection of the President-elect. As a group it will evoke both enthusiasm and disappointment.

In ability it seems to rank considerably above the cabinets of the last eight years. Its leading figures are decidedly above the leading selections of President Wilson. It embraces sufficient ability and independence to help the incoming President create the definite administration policies and leadership without which congress flounders.

Every new cabinet must be more or less of a gamble. Some men of distinction do not work well in harness. Others, of unknown qualities, develop unexpected abilities under the pressure of responsibility.

Mr. Harding has given the impression of earnestly endeavoring to gather a cabinet about him that will meet the needs of the situation as he sees them. There will be a general disposition to hope that his judgment will justify itself and that the outcome will be an administration of notable excellence.—Kansas City Star

HOOVER AND HARDING.

Mr. Hoover's acceptance of a place in the cabinet of President Harding and the terms of that acceptance will set finally at rest any doubt that may have lingered as to the sincerity of Mr. Harding's recent summary of the governing considerations that have influenced him in these initial appointments. In two out of the three points mentioned by Mr. Harding, i. e., "capacity for service and public approval," Herbert Hoover is unquestionably supremely qualified for the service to which he has been called. With respect to the third, his "established Republicanism," the people will remember Mr. Hoover's own classification of himself before the two national conventions. And they will consider that if Mr. Hoover is "a good enough Republican" for Mr. Harding, he will have to be also for the little group of reactionaries in the Senate, whose opposition has only served to confirm Mr. Harding's intention to give heed to the one universal demand formulated by the public opinion of the nation, namely, that the incoming government shall draft the services of Mr. Hoover and utilize them for the public welfare. The opposition to the Hoover appointment was one of the strongest possible arguments for his inclusion in the cabinet; and Mr. Harding's recognition of that fact by the generous terms of his offer to Mr. Hoover, coupled with his inclusion of Mr. Hughes in the intimate circle of his official family, will be received with profound satisfaction the country over.

AN UNNECESSARY PRECAUTION

1901--Twenty Years Ago--1921

Mr. Chan McDaniel is getting ready to open his new grocery on South Detroit Street Spring Hill, the goods now being placed in the store. He has built a small store on the same lot occupied by his residence.

Mr. H. D. Owens is very proud over the elegant new building which he has just completed for the Waynesville National Bank, in which the fixtures are now being placed. Mr. Harry Gallagher is at Waynesville engaged in wiring the building for electric lights. Johnson and Dean, the undertakers, have had their funeral car remodeled and improved by the Xenia Buggy Company, new tires put on and other changes made. The car shows that the Buggy Company can do as handsome work as any firm in the country.

Mr. Bert Van Cleef was in Cincinnati yesterday and took the examination for the duties of fireman on the Pan Handle. He came through all right and will at once be given a position in the Dayton yards at night.

'IT'S ME' AND 'HE DON'T,' 'AIN'T NEVER' AND OTHERS PUZZLE EDUCATORS

New York, March 1.—Edward J. Tobin, Superintendent of Schools of Cook County, in Illinois, has done a lot for "me."

"Me" can now be mentioned right out in proper circles without raising gooseflesh on anyone's sensibilities. "It's me" sounds just as good as, if not better than, "It's I," says the Western educator, who also advocates the use of "He don't" to take the place of "He doesn't."

Is language then to become ling? Must the forms of speech be reduced to the lowest common denominator among the persons using those variations?

The social position of "me" has long been disputed, and many purists have been most indifferent to the usage of "me" and "I."

"He don't" Shocks Many. But to elevate "don't" to the place of "doesn't" has provoked startled comment.

Two women, one a famous short story writer and the other a college professor, agree that standards of English should be kept up, at no matter what inconvenience to the slovenly minded.

Our third authority is more lenient in regard to Mr. Tobin's usage on grammar; in fact, "he don't" believe that it is a terribly bad sign.

But to get down to cases. Miss Fannie Hurst, well-known writer, who has enriched our short story lore with many a colorful phrase, denounces the edict of the Chicago superintendent.

Miss Hurst Makes Protest. "These forms are 'lazyisms,'" says Miss Hurst.

"It is also to be grammatical. And it is also possible to be careless without sacrifice of old forms."

"When idioms creep into our language they come into legitimate usage. The striking picturesque American phrase should not be denied a place in our speech or literature. But our language must not be run-down-at-the-heels."

"I don't encourage any one to be too idiosyncratic, but there is a difference between the forcibly descriptive idiom and the idiom of carelessness. 'I do not condemn 'it's me' completely, but 'He don't' is absolutely unpardonable. It is illogical. We can't afford to take the useless short-cut expression."

"I don't take into consideration the sound of these phrases—that is not the question. It is wholly a matter of form."

PLANE KILLS FIVE COLORED BROTHERS

Pensacola, Fla., March 2.—Five negro bathers were killed here yesterday and several others injured when a naval seaplane slipped and took the water along the beach its wing tip sweeping the sands where the bathers were gathered. The aviator was not injured, but was placed under arrest pending investigation of the accident.

The plane was in charge of Ensign John Walter Alcorn, U. S. N., who had resigned his commission in the navy and was to have been discharged today.

Witnesses of the accident said that Alcorn had taken up a woman passenger for a flight and after landing her on the beach had again taken the air and was going through some stunts when the tail of the machine tangled in a kite string. Dozens of white persons were on the beach at the time it is said but they fell to the ground, permitting the plane to pass over them.

Wooster, March 2.—A milk diet has been started in two Wooster school buildings for all pupils under weight more than 10 per cent. The test is under the direction of County Health Commissioner.

ASPIRIN

Name "Bayer" on Genuine

Unless you see the name "Bayer" on package or on tablets you are not getting genuine Aspirin prescribed by physicians for twenty one years and proved safe by millions. Take Aspirin only as told in the Bayer package for Colds, Headache, Neuralgia, Rheumatism, Barache, Toothache, Lumbago and for pain. Handy tin boxes of twelve Bayer Tablets of Aspirin cost few cents. Druggists also sell larger packages. Aspirin is the trade mark of Bayer Manufacture of Monocetate of Salicylic acid.

THE PRICELESS THIRST.

Some thirsty people wail and sigh because there is no gin! some day their costly thirst will die, and comfort will begin. A little while they'll dodge the cops and go to wild extremes to carry home a sack of hops and work out home-brew dreams. A little while they'll think it sport to trail the bootleg shark through alley foul and squalid court, to some sequestered park; but they'll soon tire of all such brews that work like this commands, that make a man take off his shoes and walk upon his hands. A little while they'll walk in gloom, and yearn for things to drink, and hair restorers they'll consume, and many brands of ink. While yet this thirst of theirs endures they'll drink all things that kick, and finiments and spavin cures will make their innards sick. But all things perish and decay, like roses in the dell, and e'en a thirst will fade away, if it's not nurtured well. And to these wights will come a time, a morning fair will come, when they'd refuse to give a dime to greet the Demon Rum. And often they will wonder why they used to wildly beef because they lacked a shot of rye to multiply their grief.

WITH THE WOMEN OF TODAY

Uncle Sam has a lot of queer jobs which must be done and there are many women waiting for him in unusual capacities. One of these is Miss Florence A. Bowman, who works in the insectary of the bureau of entomology. Here pests that cause great and small economic losses are studied by scientists with a view to creating methods of exterminating them.

It is Miss Bowman's task to pick the bugs from their native soil or plant and prepare them for the scientists' inspection under a microscope. One might think this an ideal job for a small boy, a little savage who loves to torment flies and other insects, but it seems a rather heartless task for a delicately reared young woman. Miss Bowman, however, seems to have drifted far away from the instinctive feminine fear of insects, and she pillories them between two pieces of glass in a perfectly merciless way.

Another one of her duties is to boil the insects in small porcelain crucibles. This causes the bugs to become soft and clarifies them so that the scientists can see their insides through the microscope. After they are boiled they are dipped in a red dye so that they can be more easily seen. Then they are placed between two pieces of glass which will slide easily into a microscope. All this is not as bad as it sounds, according to Miss Bowman, who takes it as the ordinary "daily grind."

WOMAN IN CHAMBER OF COMMERCE

Macon, Ga., is in the forefront of American communities in the recognition of women's work in the Chamber of Commerce. As a rule the women's department of such an organization is a subdivision of one of the main departments. In Macon the women's auxiliary parallels the plan, scope and program of the chamber itself.

SHE EDITS THREE PAPERS...

Mrs. John L. Landers of Springfield, Mass., has a real job. She is editing the women's departments of three home and farm papers in New England, the "Farm and Home," the "New England Homestead" and the "American Agriculturist."

SHE MANAGED POLITICAL CAMPAIGNS

Miss Adah Bush, secretary of Governor McGraw of Indiana, is the only woman in the United States who is serving as the chief secretary of a governor. She planned and managed Governor McGraw's campaign. She was in the Red Cross service during the war.

COUNTY CHAMPS ARE HAIRED SURPRISE

Yellow Springs High School basketball team, winners of the county championship tournament held here last week, was defeated Tuesday night by a team that was easily eliminated in the local tourney, losing to Osborn High School at Osborn 24-14.

The Osborn lads, who were eliminated easily by Caesarcreek High, runners-up in the local tournament seemed to have experienced a revival since the last week meet, and during the first period of the Yellow Springs game Tuesday night, walked away with their opponents, the period ending 18-3.

Yellow Springs was able to cut down this lead somewhat in the second half, but never appeared dangerous. Captain Zellers of the Osborn quintet was the main scoring factor in his team's attack getting eight field goals, while Bausman led for Yellow Springs with three. The result was the biggest upset of the hope that the county basketball circles has brought forth this year, and was a complete surprise to followers of the Yellow Springs players who have been going at a great clip all season. The lineup and summary:

Osborn (24) Yellow Springs (14)
Hatfield If Donley
Kaufman If Gram
Zellers If Williams
McCarthy If Weiss
Bland If Shoup

Substitutions: Semler for Hatfield, Holter for Bland, Semler for Donley, Northup for Shoup, Bausman for Gram. Field goals: Zeller 8, Kaufman 4, Bausman 3, Semler 1. Foul goals: Weiss 6. Referee and Umpire—Northup and M. Zeller.

In a preliminary game the Osborn High School girls sextette lost to the Yellow Springs girls 17-12.

KEEP LOOKING YOUNG

It's Easy—If You Know Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets

The secret of keeping young is to feel young—to do this you must watch your liver and bowels—there's no need of having a sallow complexion—dark rings under your eyes—pimples—a bilious look in your face—dull eyes with no sparkle. Your doctor will tell you ninety per cent of all sickness comes from inactive bowels and liver.

Dr. Edwards, a well-known physician in Ohio, perfected a vegetable compound mixed with olive oil to act on the liver and bowels, which he gave to his patients for years.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets, the substitute for calomel, are gentle in their action yet always effective. They bring about that natural buoyancy which all should enjoy by toning up the liver and clearing the system of impurities.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets are known by their olive color. 15c and 30c.

HEAL SKIN DISEASES

Apply Zemo, Clean, Penetrating, Antiseptic Liquid

It is unnecessary for you to suffer with eczema, blotches, ringworm, rashes and similar skin troubles. Zemo, obtained at any drug store for 35c, or $1.00 for extra large bottle, and promptly applied, will usually give instant relief from itching torture. It cleanses and soothes the skin and heals quickly and effectively most skin diseases.

Zemo is a wonderful, penetrating, disappearing liquid and is soothing to the most delicate skin. It is not greasy, is easily applied and costs little. Get it today and save all further distress.

In skin troubles, ordinary soaps are irritating and liable to aggravate the condition. Use Zemo soap. It is antiseptic, soothing, and hastens the process of healing.

POLICE ARREST TWO IN MURDER CASE

Staubenville, Ohio, March 2.

Charged with the murder of Michael Veltry, Italian, 32 years old, informant for local prohibition enforcement officials, whose mutilated body was found in a ditch on the Staubenville-Carrollton Highway, two miles west of this city, Dominic Epifano, 30, poolroom proprietor and Frank Carducci, 27, were arrested by Sheriff Edward Lucas and lodged in the Jefferson County Jail without bond.

Are You Still Going Strong at 50? Full of Life and Energy—No?

Then Eat More Spinach and Carrots with Organic Iron to Help Give You Rich, Red Blood and Revitalize Your Wornout Exhausted Nerves

YOU CANNOT BE STRONG AND WELL WITHOUT PLENTY OF IRON IN YOUR BLOOD. Without iron your blood loses its power to change food into living tissue and therefore nothing you eat does you the proper amount of good—you do not get sufficient strength and energy out of it.

Thousands of people suffer from iron-starvation of the blood and are weak, nervous and ailing all the while WITHOUT SUSPECTING THE REAL CAUSE OF THEIR TROUBLE.

THERE ARE 30,000,000,000,000 RED BLOOD CORPUSCLES IN YOUR BLOOD AND EACH ONE MUST HAVE IRON.

If you are not willing to eat the peels of fruits and vegetables and the husks of grain so as to get sufficient quantity of organic iron for your blood, as nature intended you should do, then you should eat plenty of iron-containing foods like spinach, carrots and baked apples and reinforce them from time to time with a little organic iron, which you can obtain from your druggist under the name of Nuxated Iron. Nuxated Iron represents organic iron in such a highly concentrated form that one dose of it is estimated to be approximately equivalent (in organic iron content) to eating half a quart of spinach, one quart of green vegetables or four large apples. It's like taking extract of beef instead of eating pounds of meat. Nuxated Iron is partially predigested and ready for almost immediate absorption and assimilation by the blood while metallic iron is iron just as it comes from the action of various acids on small pieces of iron. To prove to your self what Nuxated Iron will do, get your doctor to take a specimen of your blood and make a "blood count" of your red blood corpuscles, then take Nuxated Iron for a month and have a new "blood count" made and see how your red blood corpuscles have increased and how much purer and richer your blood has become; how much stronger and better you feel; also note how the color has come back to your cheeks and what a difference it has made in your nerves. Over 4,000,000 people annually are using Nuxated Iron. If you are not feeling quite up to the mark telephone for a package today. In tablet form only. Beware of substitutes. Look for the name "Nuxated" on every package and the letters N. I. on every tablet. Your money will be refunded by the manufacturer if you do not obtain perfectly satisfactory results. At all druggists.

SHE NEVER FELT BETTER IN LIFE

Magadore Woman Hadn't Enjoyed Good Health in 6 Months Before Taking Tanlac.

"I don't believe I ever felt better in my life than I have since Tanlac relieved my stomach trouble," said Mrs. Opal Brannan, of Mogadora, Ohio.

"I began to suffer dreadfully from indigestion about six months ago, and no matter how careful I was about eating I had awful pains in the pit of my stomach. The food just seemed to roll up in a ball that felt heavy as lead, and it would be hours before I could get any relief."

"At night I seldom got any rest to speak of, and would get up in the mornings feeling tired and miserable. I nearly always had a bad brassy taste in my mouth. I used to dread my housework, it was such a burden to me in my weakened condition. Several of my neighbors had been so benefited by Tanlac I decided to take it, and it certainly did for me everything they said it would."

"My digestion is perfect now, and all my troubles have disappeared. Not only that, but there is something about Tanlac that makes a person feel fine all the time. I am just full of energy now and my housework doesn't bother me a bit. In fact I enjoy it. I value Tanlac far above any medicine I ever tried and I don't believe its equal has ever been made. Tanlac is sold in Xenia by Sayre & Hemphill; in Yellow Springs by A. Finley; Bowersville, N. K. Bowermeister; Fairfield, Paul P. Young; Osborn, C. J. Logsdon; New Burlington, W. C. Smith."

Our Nation Held Spellbound by the Natural Success of Chiropractic

MIRIAM RUBIN

This is Miriam Rubin, aged eight years, of Waukegan, who fell victim to the strange talking malady on February 5th. Specialists from all parts of the country were interested in the case.

Medical science was baffled in its attempt to solve the strange disease. Newspapers carried hourly reports on her condition. Press dispatches were printed in practically every news publication in the country.

All sorts of cures ranging from a boat trip to a musical concert, were recommended in letters sent to her parents. Several Chicago musicians offered their services free.

Still Miriam chattered on for 212 hours until a Chiropractor in her own city ventured his services and asserted he thought he could help her. Her recovery was almost instantaneous.

The Case of Miriam Rubin of Waukegan, Illinois, Which Baffled the Medical Scientists

You read about it in the papers. Day after day you saw the dispatches of the pitiful condition of Miriam Rubin of Waukegan, Ill., suffering from a strange talking malady. And, you wondered how long this eight-year-old tot could live, what caused her to talk for more than two hundred and twelve consecutive hours, prohibited solid nourishment for nine days and raised her temperature to a point which implied impending death.

Yes, you pondered over her condition as did all the medical physicians and consulting specialists whose services were tendered to rescue little Miriam. Every form of sedative had been administered without improvement, no more could they do. Then finally Dr. Paul Berger, a Chiropractor of Waukegan, pleaded for the opportunity to save the child and gained consent of the parents.

But a few moments and Dr. Berger found the second and fifth vertebrae in the child's spinal column out of position and adjusted them. In a short time the child's temperature had dropped four degrees and she lapsed into the first slumber she had had for a week.

After a few Chiropractic adjustments her temperature returned to normal, her periods of slumber increased, her chattering ended and solid nourishment was administered.

She Has Completely Recovered and Is As Healthy and Happy as You!

AFFIDAVIT IN RUBIN CASE

When the news of the child's recovery was flashed abroad a storm of scientific discussion was precipitated. Anticipating criticism of scoffers, friends of Dr. Berger advised him to secure an affidavit signed by the parents. This he did, he signing it jointly with Mr. and Mrs. Rubin. It follows:

"We, the undersigned, each being duly sworn, on oath depose and say that Miriam Rubin, 8 years of age, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Rubin of 132 Gillette Avenue, Waukegan, Ill., became afflicted with a malady referred to as talking sickness and from the time she became ill was talking constantly and continuously for eight days.

"That on the ninth day of her illness Dr. Paul O. Berger, a practicing chiropractor in Waukegan, was called to treat the patient.

"And that he administered two chiropractic adjustments to the said patient. She showed marked and noticeable improvement and for the first time during her illness slept for brief periods. That the said Dr. Paul O. Berger continued to administer the chiropractic adjustments daily for about three days, and that at the end of three days the patient had ceased talking, and was resting and sleeping soundly and that her present condition is normal.

"ABRAHAM M. RUBIN.

"DOLLE J. RUBIN.

"DR. PAUL O. BERGER.

"Chiropractor.

"Subscribed and sworn to before me this 17th day of February, A. D., 1921.

"ALBERT M'DERMOTT.

"Notary Public."

HOWEVER, just as this child's maladjusted vertebrae pinched the nerves which control the organ of speech, caused her wakefulness and high fever, so you too may be suffering from some ailment due to a slight interference with the regular performance of the nerves which radiate from the spinal column.

Your Chiropractor uses the same methods as used in this case.

Why then continue to suffer from an ailment which may appear as impossible of cure? See the Chiropractor and regain your health!

Statistics show that 85 per cent of all chronic cases and 95 per cent of acute cases respond or yield to Chiropractic.

WOMEN WHO OVERWORK

"Man may work from sun to sun, but woman's work is never done. In order to keep the home neat and attractive, the children well dressed and tidy, women continually overdo and suffer in silence, drifting along from bad to worse, knowing full well that they need help to overcome the pains and aches which daily make life a burden. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is a medicine with specific value which overcomes many of the worst forms of female complaints, as the letters constantly being published in this paper will prove.

SAY BRITISH MONEY KINGS ARE STRONG FOR THE LEAGUE

London, March 2.—Discarded by America, blocked in operation by France and received at best tepidly by official quarters of Europe, is the League of Nations to find its strongest support among the money kings?

The money kings of the world are hard pressed to correct the monetary muddles growing out of the war, and there has been striking indication in two centres of world finance in England that the money kings fear nations are too small to cope with the world's troubles, and are turning to the League of Nations as the financial world's only hope.

The chairman of Lloyd's Bank and of the London County, Westminster and Parr's Bank, two of the four largest financial institutions of the British Empire, have declared for the League in a single week. The men Sir Richard Vassar-Smith of Lloyd's, and Dr. Walter Leaf are figuratively—almost literally—the spokesmen of billions of dollars of the Empire's wealth.

Lloyd's chairman sees great promise he told his stockholders' meeting, in the inauguration of the League and in the financial project initiated at the Brussels financial conference of the League.

"I can see no radical remedy for the present discontent except disarmament and it is in the League of Nations that our best hope lies," was the declaration of Dr. Leaf.

Dr. Leaf sees in the narrow nationalistic practice today of erecting tariff barriers and prohibitions of imports between nations a move leading to disaster.

The Daily News declares that the practical interest of business men of England in the League of Nations exceeds that of the politicians.

EVENING GOWN OF PEACH SILK CREPE

They called this a gown at the silk exposition, but it looked like nothing so much as a bit of clever draping of a few yards of material. The foundation is a narrow, straight-line dress of silver lace. Over this the peach colored Canton crepe is draped with studied carelessness with an effect which is rather Grecian in line.

GIFT TO WITTENBERG BY ROCKEFELLER FOUNDATION OFFERED

Local Lutherans will be interested in the announcement that the expansion fund for Wittenberg College, Springfield, Ohio, has been increased by a gift of $233,000 from the General Educational Board of the Rockefeller Foundation.

The funds to be received by Wittenberg through this gift are to be added to the general endowment fund of the college and the income is to be used to provide increased salaries for Wittenberg professors.

The gift is made conditional as are all such gifts from the Rockefeller Foundation. To obtain it Wittenberg will be required to raise a considerable sum in addition to the amount recently secured in the Greater Wittenberg Appeal. This sum must be raised for the particular purpose of increasing the salaries of the college professors and must be obtained within two years.

Next Sunday, March 6th, will be observed as "Wittenberg Day" by all Lutheran churches in Wittenberg territory. It will be a day of special services for the college. Payments will be made on subscriptions to the Wittenberg expansion fund, and special offerings will be received for the college in all Lutheran churches and Sunday schools.

LOT OWNERS TO BEGIN CIRCULATION OF PETITIONS NOW

Petitions asking for improvements on property in the Dodds addition, will probably be started Wednesday or Thursday.

Members of the committee selected to circulate the petitions met at the City Building Wednesday morning and decided to begin circulation of the petitions at once.

There is a separate petition for each street, and each makes a request for certain improvements: including cement sidewalks, curbs, sanitary sewers, water and grading and graveling of the streets.

The circulation of the petitions was the result of action taken at the meeting of all Dodds lot owners held at the City Building last week.

At the same time as the announcement of Mr. Riddle's candidacy for the position of City Manager of Middletown, there has come to light the action taken by the Xenia City Commission at a recent star chamber session. The meeting was called by Mayor Arthur Whalen, at which time he entered a motion that City Manager Riddle be requested to resign. The movement, however, fell flat, when it did not find favor with the four other commissioners, who said they would stand by the manager. Rumors that floated about the city that Mr. Riddle had been fired, are believed to have started from this secret meeting of the commission, which instead of an action asking the manager's resignation, resulted in a 4 to 1 vote of good faith and the support of the majority of the members of the Commission.

At the time of the action of the commission on this matter, Mr. Riddle was considering an offer as City Manager of Mansfield, Mass., at a minimum salary to start of $900 more than he is receiving in this city. Anxious to see the local projects he had started safely in operation, the manager withheld his answer to the Mansfield Commissioners until the action of the local commissioners proved that they would stand by him, at which time he wired his non-acceptance of the Mansfield position.

The position offered Mr. Riddle in Mansfield, was the fourth offer he has received recently, besides the Middletown position, it is said. These offers came from Dubuque, Iowa, Westport, N. Y., Mansfield, Mass., and West Palm Beach, Fla., all of them offering salaries more generous than the position here.

City Manager Riddle assumed the management here January 1, 1918, when the commission manager form of government was launched. He said Wednesday morning that although he is an applicant for the Middletown position, that he wants to see projects started here, safely carried through before he leaves.

GAMBLING CRUSADE IN TORREON, MEXICO

Torreon, Coahuila, Mexico, March 2.—The local authorities have received orders from the State officials to suppress gambling of any form. Public gambling has not been permitted here for some time, but clandestine games are carried on. A number of professional gamblers have been arrested in raids made on their places and they are being held for trial.

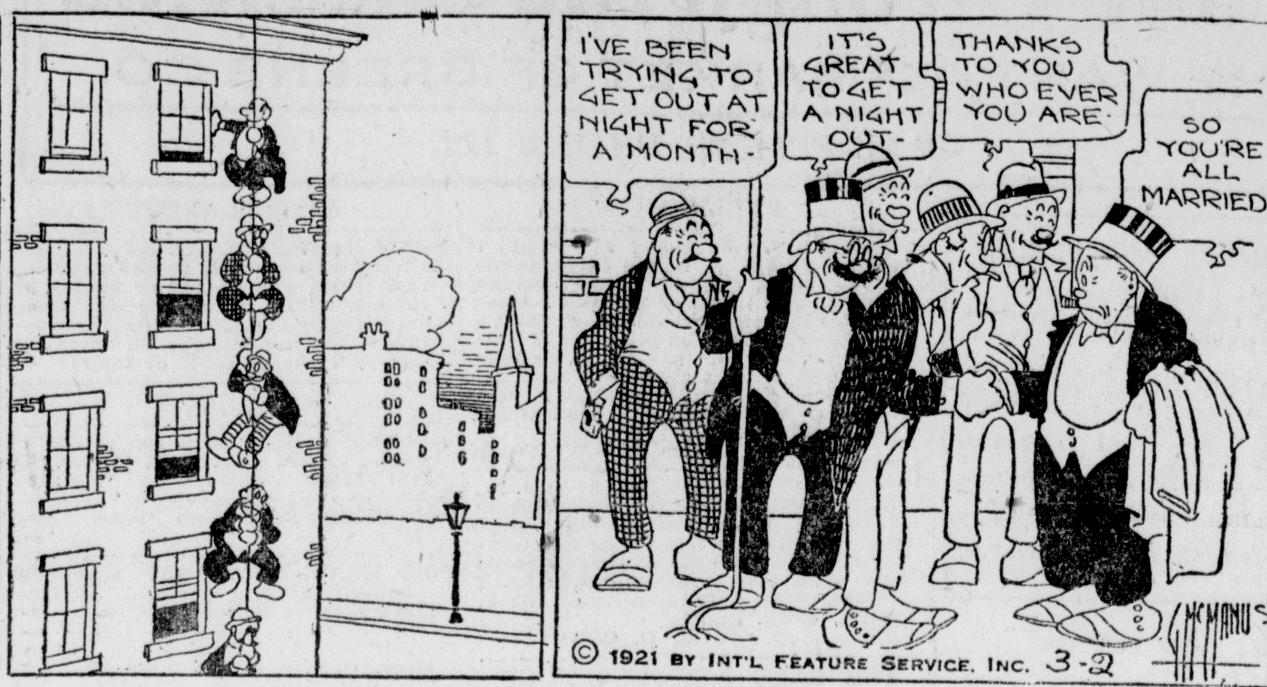

An energetic campaign is being waged against this vice throughout the entire State. It is supposed to be the first combat leading up to a final declaration for prohibition.

BILL OF HEALTH FAVORED

Toronto, March 1.—The Toronto Provincial Government proposes to introduce in the present Legislature a bill which would compel applicants for marriage licenses to show that they are free from disease, the Attorney General announced.

Benjamin Franklin said an empty sack cannot stand alone. The thought gave Basil King, famous novelist, an idea for a novel. It begins in the March Cosmopolitan. Buy it today.—Adv.

RECIPES FOR A DAY.

Luncheon Spinach—Season one cup cooked spinach with one-quarter teaspoon salt, one-eighth teaspoon pepper and one-half tablespoon margarine, hard cook two eggs, spread one-half spinach in buttered glass baking dish, add a layer of minced ham, one-half cup sufficient; next eggs chopped fine, then thin white sauce; next a layer of balance of spinach and sprinkle one-eighth cup grated cheese on top. Set in hot oven until the cheese is a rich brown.

Eggless Muffins—One cup flour, one tablespoon shortening, one-half cup milk, one tablespoon sugar, two teaspoons baking powder, one-half teaspoon salt. Makes nine muffins.

Mix and sift dry ingredients, add milk slowly, then the melted shortening, beat rapidly until light and fill muffin tins two-thirds full. Bake in quick oven.

Mock Duck—Have butcher cut a pocket in a flank steak, stuff with bread and onion dressing, roast in covered roaster, after first sprinkling meat with salt, pepper and dredging with flour. Dredge pan with flour after melting drippings in it on top of stove; in addition lay a slice of bacon or some fat on top of meat. This takes about one-half to three-quarters of an hour, the potatoes can be baked at the same time, therefore using but little more gas.

Carrot Pudding—One cup sugar mixed with one heaping teaspoon each of ground nutmeg, clove and cinnamon, a little salt and one teaspoon baking soda; add one large raw carrot, one large raw potato and one-half cup suet all chopped fine, one cup raisins mixed thoroughly, and steam two and one-half hours; one cup flour can be used if desired; it makes a looser pudding without and can be reheated several times to better advantage. Serve hot with hard sauce.

LENTEN DISHES.

Fish and Pineapple Salad—Prepare two cups of flaked, cold, boiled fish. Chop coarsely one cup of canned or fresh pineapple. Chop one cup celery and mix one red pepper fine. Mix the ingredients and sprinkle over all two table-spoons of sharp French dressing. Let stand twenty minutes, drain, fill white lettuce leaves with the salad, put a large spoonful of mayonnaise on top of each salad and garnish with olives stuffed with red peppers.

Egg Bouillie—Rub three hard-boiled eggs through a fine sieve and add one-half cup grated cheese, one-half teaspoon paprika, one-half teaspoon mustard, one teaspoon of finely grated onion, three table-spoons finely minced watercress or parsley. Mix lightly and thoroughly and then form into egg cutlets and spread with mayonnaise. Roll in grated cheese and then in finely minced parsley. Serve on crisp leaves of lettuce with bacon and watercress garnish.

Leroy Curl, East Main Street, is ill at the home of his mother Mrs. Rosa Scott, and for that reason the Zion Baptist missionary Society will meet Thursday afternoon at the home of the President, Mrs. Ida Shields, Market Street.

Ora Locust who has charge of the Cedarville Baptist Church will conduct revival services with that church this week Evangelist Hammonds of Wilberforce is assistant.

There will be a musical program at the Main Street Church of Christ Thursday evening.

THE WOMAN HE MARRIED

NERVES IN THE ASCENDANT

Chapter 104
The look in Dick's eyes had sent me to my room for fear I would say or do something to show my at what they held. For love, adoration, had swept them before he had lowered his lids—and I had seen.

I clasped and unclasped nervous hands as I walked back and forth. Was there any use in trying to hold him or win back when he felt like that?

Then came the thought—they were alone. Was she in his arms? And I rushed downstairs like one demented. I was giving that other woman her opportunity. "That Other Woman"—how often I had heard the expression, never giving it a thought. But when that other woman threatened my own home, how dangerous she was.

I didn't knock.
"What is it, Nan?" Dick asked, in amazement from the opposite swinging around on his swivel chair, while Juanita looked at me side of the table where she sat, her chin in her cupped hands, her eyes brilliant under the orange scarf which she had not removed. "She knows it is becoming," I thought. "Did you call?" I queried, embarrassed, ill at ease. I never before had failed to rap on the study door before entering.

"Why, no! Did you think you heard someone?"
"Yes, but never mind!" and as precipitately as before I again left them alone.

As I mounted the stairs I heard a soft, mocking laugh. Juanita knew why I had returned and was laughing at me.

I felt as if my anger were strangling me, and held my hand to my throat.

"I won't let her have him! I won't!" was all I could say as once more I closed the door of my room. It seemed to me as I repeated this over and over that a thousand little devils all screamed at me:

"How are you going to help your self," and at that another thousand yelled:

"She's got him now!"
That night I let Dick take Juanita home alone, I called "good night" as they left, and leaning over the banisters I asked in as suave a voice as I could command:

"You will excuse me if I don't come along, won't you? I am very tired."

"Certainly, Nan. You'd better go right to bed. I shall be back shortly," Dick answered.

Did I imagine it, or was there a sort of relief in his tone as he replied. Juanita called in her gay, husky voice:

"Dick isn't afraid to come back alone, Nan! The hobgoblins won't get him."

"I'm not afraid of the hobgoblins," I called back, and again her soft mocking laugh reached me.

It was over an hour before I heard Dick's step on the walk. When he came in I pretended to be asleep.

He called me softly just once and when I did not answer he shut himself in the study. It was hours later when he finally came upstairs.

Early the next morning I went into the study—it was before he had gotten down. What had he been doing all that time? No loose sheets, no notes, no disorder, everything just as it always was left when he and Juanita had been working together—neat piles of manuscript waiting to be corrected.

Fortunately the postman brought me a letter from Junior. When Dick came down I was busily engaged in reading it.

"What does he say?" Dick asked, man-like preferring I should tell him what Junior had written rather than read it himself.

"Derrick says to tell you you cook better than his mother's chef does, and that please to tell me not to cut him out of the next book. I threatened to give them all the go by because they hogged most every thing."

"Isn't that just like a boy?" I asked.

"You spoil that youngster," Dick smiled as he replied. Then, "What else has he got to say?" I resumed reading:

"Derrick hasn't stopped talking about Aunt Nita. He makes me tired, told him so the other day and he got real huffy. Aunt Nita's all right, but I'm fed up on her."

RIDDLE AFTER MANAGER'S JOB
AT MIDDLETOWN

City Manager of Xenia Applicant For New Position

RUMORS FALSE

Local Commissioners Endorse Management Of Kenyon Riddle.

City Manager Kenyon Riddle, Wednesday morning, admitted he is an applicant for the newly-created position of City Manager of Middletown, Ohio, following the announcement that the list of 40 or more applicants for the position had been sifted down to only three candidates, among whom the appointment lies.

Besides Mr. Riddle, the other two prospective managers being considered are E. V. Stoecklein, assistant city manager of Dayton, and acting manager there from the time of the resignation of City Manager Barlow until the appointment of City Manager Barber and Wilbur M. Cotton, city manager of Ambridge, Pa. It is generally believed, however, that the position lies between Mr. Riddle and Mr.
Stoecklein.

City Manager Riddle was in conference with members of the Middletown Commission Tuesday, but nothing definite regarding the appointment has yet been taken, and action will be deferred at least until Mr. Kenicke, a member of the commission, who is now away from home returns. A letter was received by the local manager, however, saying that the list of 40 candidates for the position, had been cut down to three, and that Mr. Riddle is among those three applicants.

Middletown was one of the first cities to adopt the commission form of government, beginning operation under that form in 1914, but the manager plan has not been followed there.
The commissioners, themselves being the directing heads of the different branches of the city government.

About a year ago a movement was agitated which finally resulted in the form of government being changed to the commission-manager form. At that time Frank Parly, editor of the Middletown Journal, wrote to Mr. Riddle for an account of the accomplishments under the commission-manager plan of government, which the paper later published. It is believed this account, led to the consideration of Mr.
Riddle for the position when the manager position was recently created.

NEW LIGHT THROWN ON MATEWAN CASE

Mingo County Courthouse, Williamson, W. Va., March 2.—The bullet that mortally wounded C. C.
Tegsterman, mayor of Matewan, in the gun battle which led to the Mingo miners' murder trial could not have been fired by any one standing directly in front of him, but must have been fired by a pistol aimed from his side.

The state established this today in cross examining Dr. H. L. Straub house surgeon of the Welch hospital, where Tegsterman died. The physician said the bullet entered the mayor's side, passed through the abdomen and came out of the other side.

S. B. Avis, cross examining took off his coat, opened his vest and had the witness point out the point of entrance, course, and exit of the bullet. The doctor's testimony was important because the defense claim the shot that fatally injured Matewan's mayor was the first of the battle and was fired by Detective Albert Felts.

OFFERS PURSE OF $15,000 FOR MATCH

New York, March 2.—Charles Kline, a local billiard academy proprietor, today offered a purse of $15,000 for a world's championship 18.2 ball line billiard match between Willie Hoppe and Edward

GIFT IS PRESENTED

Presidential Party Will Leave For Washington
Late Wednesday

Marion, O., March 2.—The home town of President-elect Harding stopped its activities for three hours today while his neighbors in the town and county gathered once more around the famous front porch in Mount Vernon Avenue and bade the Hardings Godspeed to Washington. Banks, factories and business houses locked their doors while owners and employees paid the Hardings an affectionate farewell.

The esteem with which the President-elect and Mrs. Harding are held by their neighbors was commemorated by presentation to them of a silver plaque bearing the inscription:

To Warren Gamaliel Harding
And His Wife,
Florence Kling Harding
From the Citizens of Marion
In Testimony of Affection and Gratitude for Loyal Friendship, Devotion to the Public Welfare And Service to the Highest Conceptions of American Citizenship.
God's Blessing to You.
Marion, Ohio, March 2, 1921.

The presentation was made at the front porch around which was centered so many activities of the campaign. The throng that gathered around the porch numbered several thousand people. The weather was murky and with a drizzling rain.

The Rev. T. H. McAfee, pastor of Senator Harding's church here, made the presentation of the plaque on behalf of Marion's citizens and Senator
Harding made a short response.

The Hardings will leave Marion at 7:20 o'clock tonight for Washington, reaching the capital tomorrow afternoon. Several hundred Marion folk will go to Washington tomorrow to attend the inaugural ceremonies.

The conference between General Leonard Wood and Senator Harding failed to settle the matter of Wood's accepting the governor generalship of the Philippines. General Wood left for Chicago still with the offer under consideration.

CIVILIANS KILLED

orders during the past 24 hours and nine persons, including four women, were wounded, according to a casualty report issued here today. The other wounded were three policemen and two soldiers.

RESCINDING ORDER
STANDS 2 TO 1

Columbus, March 2.—In taking final action rescinding its tentative order for reappraisal of real estate in sixty counties, the vote of the state tax commissioners stood 2 to 1. Commissioners Ryan and Forney, Republicans voted for revocation. Commissioner Cassidy, Democrat, opposed revocation.

RESIGNS CONNECTIONS

Next Secretary Of the Treasury Discusses Plans.

Pittsburgh, March 2.—Andrew W.
Mellon, Pittsburgh's foremost banker, is today just a plain citizen. He has resigned from every banking and industrial corporation with which he was connected in Pittsburgh, New York and elsewhere. He drew a long breath, free from great business cares this morning for the first time in over 45 years.

The next secretary of the treasury, when asked to enumerate the leading problems confronting the new administration replied:

"There are a great many that are important. I would consider among the leading problems reduction in outlays and realization of economies in conduct of the government.

"Readjustment of the system of federal taxation.

"Finding of our war indebtedness.

"Establishment of our policy on the world peace problems.

"Enactment of an equitable tariff measure."

PUBLIC HEARINGS
FOR REORGANIZING DEPARTMENTS HELD

Meetings Will Be Started Next Week Is the Report.

Columbus, March 2.—Public hearings are to be started next week on the Dunn bill providing for reorganization of state departments by combining them into nine direc-torships and three commissions. Suspending the rules, the house referred the measure to the committee on reorganization of state departments.

Rep. Dunn, Wood county, who introduced the bill, is chairman of the house reorganization committee.

Although the bill provides that, if enacted into law, it will become effective on July 1, Rep. Dunn and other legislative leaders said they favor passing the bill as an emergency measure, thereby making it effective immediately upon its passage.

As introduced the bill consists of 48 typewritten pages. It was ordered printed and will be distributed among legislators and interested Ohioans as soon as possible.

ONE KILLED IN TRAIN SMASHUP

Harrisburg, Pa., March 2.—The New York night express on the Pennsylvania railroad crashed into the rear end of a fast freight train a short distance west of Baileys Station at 6 o'clock this morning, causing the death of Engineer W. J.
Line, of Altoona, and serious injury of Fireman W. E. Smith. Several passengers were slightly injured.

DIRECTORS TO MEET
FOR FRANCHISE SALE

New York, March 2.—The board of directors of the International League will meet here tomorrow to pass on the sale of the Akron franchise to Montreal, it was announced today by President John G.
Toole. It is expected that the sale will be ratified and the schedule revised.

ART BECOMES BUSINESS

Chicago, March 2.—Even art must be efficient—in Chicago.

Chicago's Art Institute has joined the ranks of big business, having become an organization with daily expenditures of $1,000.

Veteran Democratic Leader Dies

Washington, D. C., March 2.—Champ Clark, veteran Democratic leader, who has been suffering from pleur-isy and a complication of diseases, died here shortly after two o'clock today.

The former speaker of the House had been ill a week, and little hope was entertained by his physician, Dr. Jesse Shoup, for his recovery.

LONDON TRAIN SAID
TO BE WORLD'S FINEST

London, March 2.—Declared by passengers to be "the finest train in the world," a train composed of six made its first trip from London to new and luxurious Pullman cars has Dover.

Each car is sixty five feet long and cost more than $44,000 to build.

The parlor coaches carry twenty-seven passengers, and those with kitchens sixteen. The decoration is different in each coach, and ranges from Sheraton to Greek styles. New devices of every description are installed to add to the comfort of the passengers.

AMERICAN TROOPS
TAKE NO PART

Washington, March 2.—There are no plans for participation by United States troops in any steps the allies may take to force Germany to accept the indemnity terms, it was stated at the state department today.

The American forces in Germany are there under the terms of the armistice, it was stated and the further use of troops by the allies is a matter, which the United States is not at present concerned with.

The question of participation by American troops must be taken up with the incoming administration, it was said.

PANAMA FORCES
CAPTURE LAUNCH

Balboa, Panama, Canal Zone, March
2.—One hundred Costa Rican soldiers and a big gasoline launch were captured by Panamanian volunteers at Coto, in Chiriqui province on Tuesday morning said a dispatch from the governor of Chiriqui today. News of this skirmish came just as the belief had become general that no further hostilities would occur because of America's offer to mediate the dispute between the two republics. The skirmish lasted 30 minutes and the Panamanians were completely successful.

RAIL SHOPS TO REOPEN

Elkhart, Ind., March 2.—The New York Central locomotive repair shops at Elkhart, employing about 700 men, and those at Collinwood, both of which were shut down a week ago, will resume operations today, it was announced by rail officials here.

DRY DETECTIVE AND LAWYER FIGHT

Dayton, March 2.—C. D. Zeller, Anti Saloon league detective, will be in police court on March 11 on an assault and battery charge filed by W. S. Rhotenhamel, attorney who says Zeller hit him during a squire's court dry case. Zellers says the lawyer became abusive.

GOVERNOR DAVIS
LEAVES FOR EAST

Governor, March 2.—Governor and Mrs. Davis, Adjutant General Florence, the governor's military staff members of the Ohio senate and house, W. E. Halley, senate clerk and other prominent Ohio Republicans are enroute today to Washington to attend the inauguration of President-elect Harding.

OFFICIALS ARE SKEPTICAL OF BATTLE RUMORS

Violent Fighting Reported Between Soviet Troops and Workmen.

GARRISON REVOLTS?

Revolution In Petrograd Reported In Finish Dispatch.

London, March 2.—The British foreign office was today without confirmation of reports of violent fighting between soviet troops and insurgent workmen at Petrograd and Moscow. Foreign office officials were skeptical of the reports.

According to the Helsingfors, correspondent of the Central News the Kronstadt garrison has joined the insurgent workmen. The Central News dispatch follows:

"There is fighting in several parts of Russia, the worst being in Petrograd and Moscow. Thirty thousand strikers drove the soviet troops across the city of Petrograd.
The fighting was most sanguinary.
The soviet commander rushed up reinforcements to save the survivors. The Kronstadt garrison has joined the rebels."

The following Exchange Telegraph dispatch was received from Helsingfors:

"The Finnish general staff has received confirmation of a revolution in Petrograd. Many persons have been killed in severe street fighting. Several quarters of the city are in the hands of the rebels.
There is much looting."

NO MEN ALLOWED ON THIS TICKET

Ouray, Col., March 2.—The women of Ouray have decided that the only way they can secure the certain desired reforms in the conduct of city affairs is to "run the city themselves" and a complete ticket has been nominated by the female of the species to be voted upon at the annual municipal election next month.

"More law and order" is the slogan of the "independent" ticket that will include woman candidates for every office from Mayor to town marshal.

BEATEN AT POLLS; KILLS SELF

Chicago, March 2.—Emmitt Wilson, former state senator of Oklahoma, and recently defeated candidate for alderman in a recent city election here, died of a self inflicted bullet wound. Wilson shot himself last night according to his wife after he had tried to kill her and their 5-year-old daughter Lillian.

DRY ACT FIRST, SAYS COURT

St. Louis, March 2.—The United States Circuit Court of Appeals ruled that the Volstead law supercedes the revenue laws pertaining to alcoholic beverages, and that persons cannot be convicted legally under the old laws when their offenses are covered by the Volstead law.

BANK CLOSURES; CASHIER GONE

Lincoln, Neb., March 2.—The State Bank of Hadar, Neb., carrying deposits of more than $200,000 was closed by order of the state department of trade and commerce, with the discovery by a bank examiner of an apparent shortage of $20,000. Secretary J. E. Hart announced that William Lefferbink, cashier and principal owner, had been missing for three days.

COURT RULES AGAINST ARMOUR & COMPANY

Washington, March 2.—Justice
Stafford of the supreme court of the District of Columbia, handed down a decision today failing to approve the plans submitted by Armour and Company, and Swift and Company, Chicago packers for disposing of their holdings, stockyard terminals and market newspaper enterprises. Thirty days was allowed these firms to present testimony as to the value of their holdings.

At the end of that time, the decision provides, that they will be given an opportunity to sell their con-terminal holdings at the price then fixed or trustees will be named as asked by the department of justice.

ENGLAND READY TO FIX TERMS OF INDEMNITY

Germany May Be Presented With An Ultimatum.

THREATEN ACTION

German Delegation Ordered To Stand Pat On Proposals.

London, March 2.—A decision was reached this afternoon to recommend to the allied premiers that a British fleet be sent to Hamburg, Germany, as a part of the plan to force Germany to meet the allied indemnity demands. Announcement was made that the recommendation would be made to the premiers when the supreme council met at 5 o'clock at Premier Lloyd George's official residence at 10 Downing street.

Paris, March 2.—The French military staff has made plans to march directly into Bavaria if an advance is expected to enforce the payment of German indemnity. It was learned this afternoon. The first military movement, it was said, would ignore the Ruhr valley.

London, March 2.—The German delegation attending the indemnity conference has been ordered by the Berlin government to stand pat upon the counter proposals tendered yesterday—that Germany's future reparations be cut down to thirty billion gold marks.

Announcement to this effect was made this morning by the German delegation.

Gets Instructions

Dr. Walter Simons the German foreign minister and head of the German delegation was in direct telegraph communication with the German government and his new instructions were received during the course of these conversations.

"Members of the German delegation said that they would inform the allies tomorrow that they cannot consider any alteration of the amount of indemnity which Germany proposes to pay. The Germans said that they took the position that only changes in the method of payment could be discussed.

The allies had demanded 226,- 000,000 gold marks ($56,000,000) and a tax of 12 per cent upon German exports.

There were rumors that the allies had prepared a sharp answer to the German counter proposals amounting to virtually an ultimatum. The proposals which have been considered to compel Germany to pay in full were understood to have been included the following:

1.—Indefinite occupation of the left bank of the Rhine.
2.—Seizure of the German coal fields.

3.—Occupation of the German ports on the right bank of the Rhine.

4.—Erection of a Rhine "customs wall"; and as a last resort.

5.—Seizure of German customs.

The climax of the critical situation into which the conference has been plunged by the attitude of the Germans is expected within 48 hours.

The judicial and military advisors of the supreme council are to make a formal report tomorrow.

"If we remain in London beyond Thursday the conference will last for at least a fortnight. If permission is given for discussion the expert will be called in and they are sure to go into minute details, moreover, experts always disagree and difficulties thus arise."

BIG INCREASE IN CANADA TRADE IS SHOWN IN REPORT

Winnipeg, Man., March 2.—Trade between Canada and the United States in 1920 was more than $300,000,000 in excess of that for the preceding year, according to semi-official reports. Canada's total exports were $1,302,805,000 and imports $1,336,911,000, making a world trade total for 1920 of $2,639,716,000. In 1919 Canada's exports were valued at $1,294,830,000 and imports at $941,013,000. Trade figures for the last month of the year, now available show that there was an increase of about $43,000,000 in exports of food products, consisting for the greater part of grain. Development of the lands in Western Canada with the influx of farm settlers is rapidly increasing the production figures and subsequently helping to increase trade figures on farm products.

Commercial analysts who have given careful study to trade figures during the last few years declare that there is very indication of imports and exports with the United States.

Canada's trade total for 1920 is the largest in the country's commercial history, exceeding the record year of 1917 by $40,000,000.

OHIO FEDERATION OF WOMEN'S CLUBS

By Mrs. George Elliott McCormick

District Conventions

Mrs. William H. Sharp, Columbus, president of the Ohio Federation of Women's Clubs, announces the dates and places for holding five of the eight district conventions.

March 11-12 Northeast district, Kent.

March 29-30, Middle North district, Mansfield.

April 7-8, Southeast, Logan.

April 12-13, Middle East, New Philadelphia.

May 10-11, Middle West Sidney.

The vice presidents of these various districts are Mrs. H. Z. Hansen, Akron; Mrs. Charles L. Halter, Fremont; Mrs. F. A. Sosman, Chillicothe; Mrs. G. W. Hixon, Cambridge, and Mrs. Allen Marshall, Piqua.

Dates and places for holding the conventions of the central, Northwest and southwest districts have not been announced.

Club Magazines in Toledo.

Toledo Club women are to have a club magazine of their own. There are perhaps few cities in the country where women are more progressive than they are in Toledo.

Although only a little more than a year old and one of the "baby" federations in Ohio, Middletown is already beginning to make its sister federations "sit up and take notice." Last month the Middletown club women celebrated their first birthday as a federation with a party attended by 250. Mrs. Charles Kunkler, Dayton, gave an interesting address. The federation raised $1,125 for the Near East Relief fund. Two weeks ago a call came to the federation from the tuberculosis hospital for knitted hospital caps and within ten days seventy-five caps were finished and sent.

One of the finest pieces of work the Middletown club women have been doing is for the children. They believe they have come close to solving the movie problem for the little folk. Every Saturday morning at 10 o'clock

they have pictures for the kiddies. The attendance varies from 350 to 1,200.

Mrs. Sharp at Urbana

Mrs. William H. Sharp, Ohio federation president, addressed the Woman's Literary Club at Urbana February 19.

Of Interest to Club Women

Here are just a few of the splendid things being done by club women in other states.

"Let's weave the red, white and blue threads of our patriotism into the design of our work." That is the slogan of the American Citizenship and Americanization committee of Nebraska.

Mrs. Lafon Riker, president of the Kentucky federation, has been placed on the state board of charities and corrections by Governor Edwin P. Morrow.

New Hampshire club women are planning to place a trained social worker in the field with non-English speaking mothers. These Yankee club women are now working for a nutrition fund whereby folk in kindergarten-classes of the public schools that are undernourished can be supplied milk.

Club women of Columbus, Georgia, are taking an active part in securing funds for a public library. Recently a book drive was conducted, many valuable books being donated.

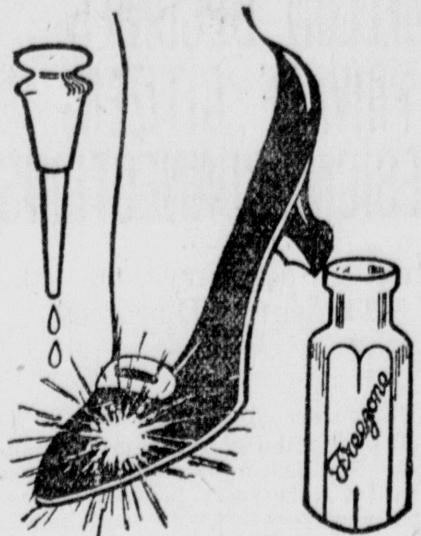

Canadian club women have asked universities in Canada to establish employment departments as a point of contact between employer and employee for the benefit of professional women who have to seek their own positions.

DRIVE ON CATERPILLARS.

Dayton, March 2.—City Manager Barber is determined that caterpillars shall not damage trees here like they did last year, if he can help prevent it. He has asked J. W. Rodgers, florist, and Clarence Seibenthaler, horticulturalist, to organize a committee to direct a drive against the "critters" before they are able to obtain a good "toe hold" this spring.

CORNS

Lift Off with Fingers

Doesn't hurt a bit! Drop a little "Freezone" on an aching corn, instantly that corn stops hurting, then shortly you lift it right off with fingers. Truly!

Your druggist sells a tiny bottle of "Freezone" for a few cents, sufficient to remove every hard corn, soft corn, or corn between the toes, and the calluses, without soreness or irritation.

TO BECOME MANAGER OF NEW YORK STORE

Robert A. Hurley, of this city, who has been assistant manager of the Woolworth five and ten cent store in Springfield, has been made manager of a new store to be opened by that company in Endicott, New York.

Mr. Hurley was called to the Main offices of the Company Monday where he received his promotion as manager to the new store. The store will be opened up April 1, but Mr. Hurley will take charge at once, arranging for the opening.

Mr. Hurley began his connection with the Woolworth Company in this city while still attending Central High School, being assistant manager here. Following his graduation he was assigned as assistant manager of the Piqua store, and about a year ago was transferred to Springfield. He is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hurley of Hill street, and was to have taken part in the American Legion minstrel show here, when he received his summons to go to Buffalo.

DR. HARRY WILSON DIES IN THE WEST

Relatives in this city have received word of the death of Dr. Harry Wilson, of San Diego, California, which occurred there suddenly Saturday night.

Dr. Wilson was about 60 years of age, and is survived by his wife and three children, one daughter, Mrs. Katherine Shelton, of Chattanooga, Tenn., and another daughter in San Francisco, Cal., and one son David, who is a student at the Boston Medical School. Dr. Wilson was a Quaker and was a resident of this vicinity for many years, making his home with his uncle, the late Nixon Brown, who resided northwest of Jamestown.

METEORS WILL MEET ST. JOSEPH'S FIVE

St. Brigid's Meteors, for the second time this season will meet St. Joseph's High School quintet of Springfield on the Rink court Wednesday night.

In the previous contest between these two teams, the Meteors lost by a narrow margin and they think that they can reverse the result in a second contest here. In the last game Coach Haller's lads were playing without their regular lineup, which is expected to make a difference when they appear with the regular five Wednesday night.

In a preliminary game, St. Brigid's Cadets will play another good team as a curtain raiser.

On charges of stealing a suitcase belonging to Miss Ivan McClain of Jamestown, from the D. X. & S. traction office here Monday night, Miss Irene and Bobbie Hook, of Dayton, who have been living here for two weeks and Don Hewitt of Blanchester were arrested by Deputy Sheriff's Birch and Day in Wilmington Tuesday night.

Wednesday morning Magistrate J. E. Jones fined the girls $200 each, and suspended the fine on the agreement the girls leave town immediately. The case against Hewitt was suspended on payment of the costs, and the posting of $38 to cover the cost of the suit case and contents should it not be returned.

The Hook sisters had been living here two weeks when they left Monday evening with Hewitt for Blanchester. In the traction office they took Miss McClain's suit case, but claimed that it was taken by mistake. Their own suitcase, they left, and it was claimed by their mother, who was in the office at the time, and taken to Dayton by her. The girls claimed they sent the suit case to Miss McClain addressed to Miami-Jacobs Business College, Dayton, where she is a student, but as it had not arrived yet, Hewitt was required to put up $38 which will be returned to him if the baggage is found in good condition. When Deputy Sheriff Birch and Day arrived in Blanchester to arrest the girls Tuesday evening they found they had gone to Wilmington, where they were placed under arrest by the officers. It is alleged that in Blanchester, they claimed they knew nothing of the suitcase, and had not come through Xenia, saying they came there from Columbus.

MOTHERS' CLUB TO PRESENT PLAYLET IT IS ANNOUNCED

Plans are being made by the Mothers' Club of the Orient Hill School, for the presentation of a playlet, to be given the first part of April, in which members of the Club will take part. The plans were formulated at the meeting of the members of the Club held at the school, Tuesday afternoon.

The proceeds from the play will be put into a fund held by the Club, which will be to pay for the work being done by the members. New plans are being made by the Club, which will be to the interest of the children of the school and money is needed to carry out the proposed plans.

The characters for the play will be taken by the members of the Club who number about 50, and the selection of parts is being made by Mrs. C. R. Stearns, as chairman of the committee.

COURT NEWS

The will of Alice Q. Lucas, admitted to Probate by Judge J. Carl Marshall Tuesday, disposes of an estate valued in money at $600; Under the original will, executed May 22, 1905, a niece, Mrs. Ola Delph and her heirs are bequeathed a frame house on the hill next to the C. H. & D. railroad, known as a tenant house and situated on the Hawkins road, and all the land east of the Hawkins road and between the farm of Grant Miller and the Dayton and Xenia pike. The barn and other buildings belonging to the tenant house on the west side of the road and five acres of land are to go with the house. To her husband John B. Lucas now dead and her sister, Sarah Quinn was bequeathed all of the rest of the real estate during their natural life and to them also all the personal property was given to go to Mrs. Delph at their death.

A codicil to the will, executed April 24, 1917, bequeaths to Mrs. Delph the piano, furniture and household goods and to a nephew, Carl A. Andrews and his daughter, Mildred A. Andrews a tract of land between the Hawkins road and the C. H. & D. railroad and also a tract at the intersection of the Hawkins road and the Dayton and Xenia pike.

A second codicil was executed in September 1920 giving Mrs. Delph a wheat binder, mower, three wagons, buggy, two horses, a piano a ladies watch and chain and all the household goods.

Cora L. Baker is plaintiff in an action asking divorce from Fred E. Baker, filed with clerk of Courts C. S. Johnson Tuesday. The plaintiff charges gross neglect of duty. The couple was married August 28, 1918.

James Corbett, colored, of Yellow Springs, is being held in the Montgomery County jail at Dayton, on charges of sending obscene letters through the mail to Jennie Milton, Detroit, Michigan.

As the case is a federal offense, Corbett is being held for a hearing in United States District Court, March 7.

ILLINOIS YOUTH IS NATHAN HALE OF WORLD WAR

Lieut. Oliver Junian Kendall.

When the American Red Cross discovered an unmarked grave behind the lines once held by the Kaiser's forces at Cantigny, an investigation was held and the body of an American lieutenant was found. Oliver Junian Kendall is his name. He was connected with the engineering division of the first troops that occupied the front trenches near Cantigny. The Americans had never assumed the offensive and hearing some noise in "no man's land" Kendall volunteered to investigate. He was captured by the Germans and upon his refusal to divulge any information was shot as a spy, the Nathan Hale of the World War.

HAVE TO GET UP NIGHTS?

If So Your Bladder is Irritated. Try This Simple Remedy.

Wm. D. Ostermeyer, 326 E. Second St., Dayton, Ohio, says in his own home paper the Dayton Daily News: "My bladder caused me to get up many times at night and inconvenience me as often as every 30 minutes in the day. After taking a few lithiated buchu tablets, my bladder is perfectly normal. They also relieved me of a very lame back. It gives me much pleasure to tell my friends about these little tablets."

Lithiated buchu acts on the kidneys and bladder like Epsom salts on the bowels. It cleans out the impurities, which cause the irritation. It is a patent medicine, as the formula is on the package. The tablets cost 2c each. This price makes it possible to place in the formula several high priced drugs, which are necessary to give prompt relief. Very likely, you have never taken anything like it. Try a few doses for backache, scaling, scanty or high colored urine, frequent desire, gravel and other deposits of the bladder. Ask to see the Keller formula of lithiated buchu at Sayre & Hemphill's Drug Store, or drug stores everywhere.

COUNTY CHAMPS ARE HANDED SURPRISE

Yellow Springs High School basketball team, winners of the county championship tournament held here last week, was defeated Tuesday night by a team that was easily eliminated in the local tourney, losing to Osborn High School at Osborn 24-14.

The Osborn lads, who were eliminated easily by Cascarets High, runners-up in the local tournament, seemed to have experienced a revival since the last week meet, and during the first period of the Yellow Springs game Tuesday night, walked away with their opponents, the period ending 18-3.

Yellow Springs was able to cut down this lead somewhat in the second half, but never appeared dangerous. Captain Zellers of the Osborn quintet was the main scoring factor in his team's attack getting eight field goals, while Bausman led for Yellow Springs with three. The result was the biggest upset of the hope that the county basketball circles has brought forth this year, and was a complete surprise to followers of the Yellow Springs players who have been going at a great clip all season. The lineup and summary:

Osborn (24) Yellow Springs (14)
 Hatfield If. Donley
 Kaufman rf. Gram
 Zellers c. Williams
 McCarty lg. Weiss
 Bland rg. Shoup
 Substitutions: Semler for Hatfield, Holter for Bland, Semler for Donley, Northup for Shoup, Bausman for Gram. Field goals: Zeller 8, Kaufman 4, Bausman 3, Semler 1. Foul goals: Weiss 6. Referee and Umpire—Northup and M. Zeller.

In a preliminary game the Osborn High School girls sextette lost to the Yellow Springs girls 17-12.

KEEP LOOKING YOUNG

It's Easy—If You Know Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets

The secret of keeping young is to feel young—to do this you must watch your liver and bowels—there's no need of having a sallow complexion—dark rings under your eyes—pimples—a bilious look in your face—dull eyes with no sparkle. Your doctor will tell you ninety per cent of all sickness comes from inactive bowels and liver.

Dr. Edwards, a well-known physician in Ohio, perfected a vegetable compound mixed with olive oil to act on the liver and bowels, which he gave to his patients for years.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets, the substitute for calomel, are gentle in their action yet always effective. They bring about that natural buoyancy which all should enjoy by toning up the liver and clearing the system of impurities.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets are known by their olive color. 15c and 30c.

Are You Still Going Strong at 50? Full of Life and Energy—No?

Then Eat More Spinach and Carrots with Organic Iron to Help Give You Rich, Red Blood and Revitalize Your Wornout Exhausted Nerves

YOU CANNOT BE STRONG AND WELL WITHOUT PLENTY OF IRON IN YOUR BLOOD. Without iron your blood loses its power to change food into living tissue and therefore nothing you eat does you the proper amount of good—you do not get sufficient strength and energy out of it.

Thousands of people suffer from iron-starvation of the blood and are weak, nervous and ailing all the while WITHOUT SUSPECTING THE REAL CAUSE OF THEIR TROUBLE.

THERE ARE 30,000,000,000 RED BLOOD CORPUSCLES IN YOUR BLOOD AND EACH ONE MUST HAVE IRON.

If you are not willing to eat the peels of fruits and vegetables and the husks of grain so as to get sufficient quantity of organic iron for your blood, as nature intended you should do, then you should eat plenty of iron-containing foods like spinach, carrots and baked apples and reinforce them from time to time with a little organic iron, which you can obtain from your druggist under the name of Nuxated Iron.

Nuxated Iron represents organic iron in a highly concentrated form that one dose of it is estimated to be approximately equivalent (in organic iron content) to eating half a quart of spinach, one quart of green vegetables or four large apples. It's like taking extract of beef instead of eating pounds of meat. Nuxated Iron is partially predigested and ready for almost immediate absorption and assimilation by the blood while metallic iron is iron just as it comes from the action of various acids on small pieces of iron. To prove to your self what Nuxated Iron will do, get your doctor to take a specimen of your blood and make a "blood count" of your red blood corpuscles, then take Nuxated Iron for a month and have a new "blood count" made and see how your red blood corpuscles have increased and how much purer and richer your blood has become; how much stronger and better you feel; also note how the color has come back to your cheeks and what a difference it has made in your nerves.

Over 4,000,000 people annually are using Nuxated Iron. If you are not feeling quite up to the mark telephone for a package today. In tablet form only. Beware of substitutes. Look for the name "Nuxated" on every package and the letters N. I. on every tablet. Your money will be refunded by the manufacturer if you do not obtain perfectly satisfactory results. At all druggists.

SHE NEVER FELT BETTER IN LIFE

Magadore Woman Hadn't Enjoyed Good Health in 6 Months Before Taking Tanlac.

"I don't believe I ever felt better in my life than I have since Tanlac relieved my stomach trouble," said Mrs. Opal Brannan, of Magadora, Ohio.

"I began to suffer dreadfully from indigestion about six months ago, and no matter how careful I was about eating I had awful pains in the pit of my stomach. The food just seemed to roll up in a ball that felt heavy as lead, and it would be hours before I could get any relief.

"At night I seldom got any rest to speak of, and would get up in the mornings feeling tired and miserable. I nearly always had a bad brassy taste in my mouth. I used to dread my housework, it was such a burden to me in my weakened condition. Several of my neighbors had been so benefited by Tanlac I decided to take it, and it certainly did for me everything they said it would.

"My digestion is perfect now, and all my troubles have disappeared. Not only that, but there is something about Tanlac that makes a person feel fine all the time. I am just full of energy now and my housework doesn't bother me a bit. In fact I enjoy it. I value Tanlac far above any medicine I ever tried and I don't believe its equal has ever been made."

Tanlac is sold in Xenia by Sayre & Hemphill; in Yellow Springs by A. Finley; Powersville, N. K. Bowermeister; Fairfield, Paul P. Young; Osborn, C. J. Logsdon; New Burlington, W. C. Smith.

Another Chiropractic Achievement

Our Nation Held Spellbound by the Natural Success of Chiropractic

MIRIAM RUBIN

This is Miriam Rubin, aged eight years, of Waukegan, who fell victim to the strange talking malady on February 5th. Specialists from all parts of the country were interested in the case.

Medical science was baffled in its attempt to solve the strange disease. Newspapers carried hourly reports on her condition. Press dispatches were printed in practically every news publication in the country.

All sorts of cures ranging from a boat trip to a musical concert, were recommended in letters sent to her parents. Several Chicago musicians offered their services free.

Still Miriam chattered on for 212 hours until a Chiropractor in her own city ventured his services and asserted he thought he could help her. Her recovery was almost instantaneous.

The Case of Miriam Rubin of Waukegan, Illinois, Which Baffled the Medical Scientists

You read about it in the papers. Day after day you saw the dispatches of the pitiful condition of Miriam Rubin of Waukegan, Ill., suffering from a strange talking malady. And, you wondered how long this eight-year-old tot could live, what caused her to talk for more than two hundred and twelve consecutive hours, prohibited solid nourishment for nine days and raised her temperature to a point which implied impending death.

Yes, you pondered over her condition as did all the medical physicians and consulting specialists whose services were tendered to rescue little Miriam. Every form of sedative had been administered without improvement, no more could they do. Then finally Dr. Paul Berger, a Chiropractor of Waukegan, pleaded for the opportunity to save the child and gained consent of the parents.

But a few moments and Dr. Berger found the second and fifth vertebrae in the child's spinal column out of position and adjusted them. In a short time the child's temperature had dropped four degrees and she lapsed into the first slumber she had had for a week.

After a few Chiropractic adjustments her temperature returned to normal, her periods of slumber increased, her chattering ended and solid nourishment was administered.

She Has Completely Recovered and Is As Healthy and Happy as You!

AFFIDAVIT IN RUBIN CASE

When the news of the child's recovery was flashed abroad a storm of scientific discussion was precipitated. Anticipating criticism of scoffers, friends of Dr. Berger advised him to secure an affidavit signed by the parents. This he did, he signing it jointly with Mr. and Mrs. Rubin. It follows:

"We, the undersigned, each being duly sworn, on oath depose and say that Miriam Rubin, 8 years of age, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Rubin of 122 Gillette Avenue, Waukegan, Ill., became afflicted with a malady referred to as talking sickness and from the time she became ill was talking constantly and continuously for eight days.

"That on the ninth day of her illness Dr. Paul O. Berger, a practicing chiropractor in Waukegan, was called to treat the patient.

"And that he administered two chiropractic adjustments to the said patient. She showed marked and noticeable improvement and for the first time during her illness slept for brief periods. That the said Dr. Paul O. Berger, continued to administer the chiropractic adjustments daily for about three days, and that at the end of three days the patient had ceased talking, and was resting and sleeping soundly and that her present condition is normal.

"ABRAHAM M. RUBIN.

"DOLLIE J. RUBIN.

"DR. PAUL O. BERGER.

"Chiropractor.

"Subscribed and sworn to before me this 17th day of February, A. D., 1921.

"ALBERT M'DERMOTT,

"Notary Public."

HOWEVER, just as this child's maladjusted vertebrae pinched the nerves which control the organ of speech, caused her wakefulness and high fever, so you too may be suffering from some ailment due to a slight interference with the regular performance of the nerves which radiate from the spinal column.

Your Chiropractor uses the same methods as used in this case.

Why then continue to suffer from an ailment which may appear as impossible of cure? See the Chiropractor and regain your health!

Statistics show that 85 per cent of all chronic cases and 95 per cent of acute cases respond or yield to Chiropractic.

At the same time as the announcement of Mr. Riddle's candidacy for the position of City Manager of Middletown, there has come to light the action taken by the Xenia City Commission at a recent star chamber session.

The meeting was called by Mayor Arthur Whalen, at which time he entered a motion that City Manager Riddle be requested to resign. The motion, however, fell flat, when it did not find favor with the four other commissioners who said they would stand by the manager. Rumors that floated about the city that Mr. Riddle had been fired, are believed to have started from this secret meeting of the commission, which instead of an action asking the manager's resignation, resulted in a 4 to 1 vote of good faith and the support of the majority of the members of the Commission.

At the time of the action of the commission on this matter, Mr. Riddle was considering an offer as City Manager of Mansfield, Mass., at a minimum salary to start of $900 more than he is receiving in this city. Anxious to see the local projects he had started safely in operation, the manager withheld his answer to the Mansfield Commission until the action of the local commissioners proved that they would stand by him, at which time he wired his non-acceptance of the Mansfield position.

The position offered Mr. Riddle in Mansfield, was the fourth offer he has received recently, besides the Middletown position, it is said. These offers came from Dubuque, Iowa, Waukegan, N. Y., Mansfield, Mass., and West Palm Beach, Fla., all of them offering salaries more generous than the position here.

City Manager Riddle assumed the management here January 1, 1918, when the commission manager form of government was launched. He said Wednesday morning that although he is an applicant for the Middletown position, that he wants to see projects started here, safely carried through before he leaves.

GAMBLING CRUSADE IN TORREON, MEXICO

Torreon, Coahuila, Mexico, March 2.—The local authorities have received orders from the State officials to suppress gambling of any form. Public gambling has not been permitted here for some time, but clandestine games are carried on. A number of professional gamblers have been arrested in raids made on their places and they are being held for trial.

An energetic campaign is being waged against this vice throughout the entire State. It is supposed to be the first combat leading up to a final declaration for prohibition.

RECIPES FOR A DAY.

Luncheon Spinach—Season one cup cooked spinach with one-quarter teaspoon salt, one-eighth teaspoon pepper and one-half tablespoon margarine, hard cook two eggs, spread one-half spinach in buttered glass baking dish, add a layer of minced ham, one-half cup sufficient; next eggs chopped fine, then thin white sauce; next a layer of balance of spinach and sprinkle one-eighth cup grated cheese on top. Set in hot oven until the cheese is a rich brown.

Eggless Muffins—One cup flour, one tablespoon shortening, one-half cup milk, one tablespoon sugar, two teaspoons baking powder, one-half teaspoon salt. Makes nine muffins.

Mix and sift dry ingredients, add milk slowly, then the melted shortening, beat rapidly until light and fill muffin tins two-thirds full. Bake in quick oven.

Mock Duck—Have butcher cut a pocket in a flank steak, stuff with bread and onion dressing, roast in covered roaster, after first sprinkling meat with salt, pepper and dredging with flour. Dredge pan with flour after melting drippings in it on top of stove; in addition

lay a slice of bacon or some fat on top of meat. This takes about one-half to three-quarters of an hour, the potatoes can be baked at the same time, therefore using but little more gas.

Carrot Pudding—One cup sugar mixed with one heaping teaspoon each of ground nutmeg, clove and cinnamon, a little salt and one teaspoon baking soda; add one large raw carrot, one large raw potato and one-half cup suet all chopped fine, one cup raisins mixed thoroughly, and steam two and one-half hours; one cup flour can be used if desired; it makes a looser pudding without and can be reheated several times to better advantage. Serve hot with hard sauce.

LENTEN DISHES.

Fish and Pineapple Salad—Prepare two cups of flaked, cold, boiled fish. Chop coarsely one cup of canned or fresh pineapple. Chop one cup celery and mince one red pepper fine. Mix the ingredients and sprinkle over all two tablespoons of sharp French dressing. Let stand twenty minutes, drain, fill white lettuce leaves with the salad, put a large spoonful of mayonnaise on top of each salad and garnish with olives stuffed with red peppers.

Egg Bougarie—Rub three hard-boiled eggs through a fine sieve and add one-half cup grated cheese, one-half teaspoon paprika, one-half teaspoon mustard, one teaspoon of finely grated onion, three tablespoons finely minced watercress or parsley. Mix lightly and thoroughly and spread with mayonnaise. Roll in grated cheese and then in finely minced parsley. Serve on crisp leaves of lettuce with bacon and watercress garnish.

THE WOMAN HE MARRIED

NERVES IN THE ASCENDENT

Chapter 104
The look in Dick's eyes had sent me to my room for fear I would say or do something to show my at what they held. For love, adoration, had swept them before he had lowered his lids—and I had seen.

I clasped and unclasped nervous hands as I walked back and forth. Was there any use in trying to hold him or win back when he felt like that?

Then came the thought—they were alone. Was she in his arms? And I rushed downstairs like one demented. I was giving that other woman her opportunity. "That Other Woman"—how often I had heard the expression, never giving it a thought. But when that other woman threatened my own home, how dangerous she was.

"I didn't knock."
"What is it, Nan?" Dick asked, in amazement from the opposite swinging around on his swivel chair, while Juanita looked at me side of the table where she sat, her chin in her cupped hands, her eyes brilliant under the orange scarf which she had not removed. "She knows it is becoming," I thought. "Did you call?" I queried, embarrassed, ill at ease. I never before had failed to rap on the study door before entering.

"Why, no! Did you think you heard someone?"
"Yes, but never mind!" and as precipitately as before I again left them alone.

As I mounted the stairs I heard a soft, mocking laugh. Juanita knew why I had returned and was laughing at me.

I felt as if my anger were strangling me, and held my hand to my throat.

"I won't let her have him! I won't!" was all I could say as once more I closed the door of my room. It seemed to me as I repeated this over and over that a thousand little devils all screamed at me.

"How are you going to help your self," and at that another thousand yelled:
"She's got him now!"
That night I let Dick take Juanita home alone. I called "good night" as they left, and leaning over the banisters I asked in as suave a voice as I could command:

"You will excuse me if I don't come along, won't you? I am very tired."

"Certainly, Nan. You'd better go right to bed. I shall be back shortly," Dick answered.

Did I imagine it, or was there a sort of relief in his tone as he replied. Juanita called in her gay, husky voice:

"Dick isn't afraid to come back alone, Nan! The hobgoblins won't get him."
"I'm not afraid of the hobgoblins," I called back, and again in her soft mocking laugh reached me.

It was over an hour before I heard Dick's step on the walk. When he came in I pretended to be asleep. He called me softly just once and when I did not answer he shut him self in the study. It was hours later when he finally came upstairs.

Early the next morning I went into the study—it was before he had gotten down. What had he been doing all that time? No loose sheets, no notes, no disorder, everything just as it always was left when he and Juanita had been working together—neat piles of manuscript waiting to be corrected.

Fortunately the postman brought me a letter from Junior. When Dick came down I was busily engaged in reading it.

"What does he say?" Dick asked, man-like preferring I should tell him what Junior had written rather than read it himself.

"Derriek says to tell you you cook better than his mother's chef does, and that please to tell me not to cut him out of the next book. I threatened to give them all the go by because they hogged most every thing."

"Isn't that just like a boy?" I asked.

"You spoil that youngster," Dick smiled as he replied. Then, "What else has he got to say?" I resumed reading.

"Derriek hasn't stopped talking about Aunt Nita. He makes me tired, told him so the other day and he got real huffy. Aunt Nita's all right, but I'm fed up on her."
